

PASTOR'S NOTES

Belated Thanks –

As time has flown by I came to realize that I have not properly thanked those parishioners who wished or sent greetings on the occasion of my 71st birthday this past October 23rd. Your thoughtfulness is deeply appreciated. Birthdays have ways of stirring good memories of family, friends and the gift of faith that has come over the years. Your well wishes mean a lot.

End of another church year

Next Sunday (Nov. 22nd) is the solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, which is often shortened to simply Christ the King Sunday. That solemnity is always the last Sunday of the church year. The following Sunday (Nov. 29th) will be the first Sunday of Advent and Advent is the season that begins a new church year.

Our Sunday gospel readings for this present church year that is soon ending have come from Matthew's gospel. All gospels tell the story of Christ whom the Father sent into the world to save the human race. Each gospel develops this story in the unique ways that God has spoken to that particular gospel writer.

In many ways Matthew's gospel can be summarized in chapters 5, 6 & 7. These three chapters are known as the Sermon on the Mount. This sermon begins with the Beatitudes, which outlines the stairway to heaven

[Mt. 5:1-12]. This is followed by probing the deepest meaning of the Ten Commandments (e.g. - not calling one another names {5th Commandment}; adultery in the heart {6th Commandment}; praying for one's enemies, etc.).

In chapter seven (7), Jesus ends the Sermon on the Mount with the images of two houses — one built on sand and other built on rock. He challenges all people who listen to these words and puts them into practice as being a person who has built his house on rock. Such houses can stand the falling rain and the buffeting winds whereas houses built on sand will collapse. The following chapters in Matthew's gospel spell out this house-building project.

All readers are left to ponder and ask themselves — is my house of faith built on sand or is it built on rock?

- > have we interiorized the Ten Commandments or just lived them in the most minimal of ways?
[Mt. 5:21ff.; 5:27ff.; 5:38-48, etc.]
- > do we see the Christian way of life as the 'pearl of great price' and sold everything to purchase it?
[Mt. 13:44-46]
- > do we expect and accept great mercy from God but do not give to others in the same way?
[Mt. 18:21-35]
- > do we desire all the perks and privileges of attending a wedding, but do not do our part in purchasing a wedding garment? [Mt. 22:1-14]
- > do we expect to get or to borrow spiritual gifts from others that can only be obtained by ourselves?
[Mt. 25:1-13]

Hopefully this year's walk with Matthew's gospel has enriched our spiritual lives and called us to live more fully the ways of God's Kingdom.

Liturgical accoutrements

This Sunday will be our last poster of liturgical items frequently used in the life of a parish church. Each week we have posted the past week's item on the walls of St. Leo's church. Hopefully this has been a point of education for parishioners as we come to see and get to know the names of these various liturgical items that facilitate the ongoing life of the Church.

This week's Stewardship moment:

"Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities." - Matthew 25:21

God calls us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us. He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

Book of Remembrance: All are invited to write down the names of your deceased loved ones and we will pray for them at the Daily and Weekend Masses during the month of November. The Book of Remembrance is located in the church entry.

Hospice of the Red River Valley is offering several different virtual classes on dealing with grief. Classes are intended for those who have experienced a loss.
